2009 Talbott Pinot Noir, Kali Hart

KCBS SAN FRANCISCO

“Medium, coppery red color. Aromas of plum blossoms and fresh baked bread lead to a very tasty mouthful of wines. Ripe berry flavors linger on the palate. A perfect wine to serve with some of the lovely wild salmon now on the market. Just enough acid and tannins to round out the balance on the palate. 95% of the grapes are from Talbott’s Sleepy Hollow Vineyard in the Santa Lucia Highlands. Great price at $21.00.”
