2007 Talbott Chardonnay

SACRAMENTO BEE

“But for those who crave a fat, mouth-filling style of Chardonnay, this wine from Monterey County’s Talbott Vineyards will do you right at a good price. The nose is full of apple and pear, and thankfully, it’s light on the butter-bomb aromatics. Flavors of tropical fruit and a hint of minerality make this an easy palate-pleaser with a fairly rich body.”
