WINE SPECTATOR

Tasting Highlights: 2007 California Chardonnay

Fifteen Chardonnays from the classic 2007 vintage to savor on a summer evening

“Hot weather is white wine weather, and while your first options might be to uncork a crisp Riesling, Sauvignon Blanc, or Albariño, a rich, smoky Chardonnay can also fill the bill for grilled fish or chicken or just about anything else off the grill.”

2007 Logan Chardonnay

“Hard clove, cedar, ripe pear and apple flavors are pure, focused, intense and concentrated, gaining depth and richness on the finish.”
